

The President shall be a Full Member and shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Executive Board, call all special meetings, appoint Chairmen of all Special Committees with the advice and consent of the Executive Board and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees. She shall be one of the three signatories on all American Women's Association's bank accounts. She shall perform the duties of leadership and coordination pertaining to the office.